Awards and sponsors will be posted at the Fair

- Beef entry fee is $2.00 PER animal ENTERED.
- Only one animal may be entered per entry number.
- Read Health Rules regarding animals/exhibits at Fair.
- Market Animal entries will be divided into three main classes:
 1. Class A - Beef breeds & respective beef and dairy crosses
 2. Class B - All Straight Dairy Breed animals
 3. Class C – Market Beef Heifers (must have at least 5 entries to run class, otherwise heifers will be put into steer classes)
(Entries in major classes will be divided into weight subclasses provided 16 or more entries are received)
- Exhibitors may have two market entries. Only one animal may be shown by an exhibitor in a subclass. If both market entries fall into same subclass, one entry will be assigned to next appropriate class by committee recommendation. Classes are posted Tuesday evening in Beef barn to make class corrections.
- All steers must be completely castrated and dehorned. Scurs are acceptable if less than 2 inches in length and loose from the skull.
- Final class placing will be based on live evaluation.
- Subclass top blues (A-Beef; B-Dairy) will show for champion. Champion subclass 2nd blue can be called for Reserve Champion.
- See back of fair book, “Meat Animal Sale Rules” #18 for Market Beef, and #24 Sale Order Determinations.
- ALL Market Animal entries MUST BE pre-identified in February OR are not eligible for Champion honors or sale.
- Exhibitors are totally responsible for behavior of entries in and out of the ring. Show Committee reserves right to dismiss from ring animals that threaten the welfare of exhibitors, staff or audience.
- 3rd grade Exploring members are to be enrolled in the Beef Feeder project and are only allowed to exhibit in Class D
 - Beef/Dairy Feeders.
